We have a new Mona author! Come by the library and check out Jumper, by Shelley Flake.

Shelley Flake:
Shelley was a foster parent for 8 years & has two adopted children for a total of nine. She has a bachelor's degree in Special Education and a lifetime of experience working with children of all ages both at home and through volunteer work. She and her family recently moved from their home just north of New York City to a quiet 100-acre ranch in the West, with a dozen trail horses, cows, chickens, barn cats & her beloved Border-Aussie, Blue. One of her favorite pastimes is singing & dancing with her family in the kitchen. Bring on Ed Sheeran, Frank Sinatra, Billy Joel, Carly Simon, The Beatles, or Alicia Keys...Bottom line, there is always music playing at the Flake house.

Jumper
by Shelley Call Flake

Jumper is the story of a little colt who is separated from his birth mother. From fear and loss to healing and hope, this book tenderly portrays the complexities of addiction, separation trauma, and healing. This powerful teaching tool can grow with children as it is read at different stages of life.

Library News

the spirit of Christmas is in the air! We hope you are enjoying this special season—keep it simple; slow down and pay no heed to the commercialism. Our library has a large selection of Christmas books, CDs and DVDs. We will be closed Tuesdays and Wednesdays during winter break—December 20-28 and open again Tuesday, January 2.

FYI--We have Brandon Sanderson's three volume Mistborn series.

Remember: we have an after-hours drop box by the east door.

Books give a soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination and life to everything.

Merry Christmas!
